

Early Learning Programs

The aim of early learning programs in The Bahamas Catholic Board of Education schools is to nurture an environment where inquiry, discovery and kinesthetic activities are constantly encouraged. Daily, students are exposed to a culture that promotes play-based learning, fosters the development of language and strengthens social interactions among scholars.

