

LETTER TO PARENTS/GUARDIANS ON THE CATHOLIC BOARD OF EDUCATION'S HURRICANE PROCEDURE FOR CLOSURE OF SCHOOLS

September 4, 2017

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Due to the imminent arrival of Hurricane Irma later this week, this letter outlines the procedures the Catholic Board of Education (CBE) will follow regarding the closure of all CBE schools.

The Catholic Board of Education will close its schools at the same time as The Ministry of Education's closure of its schools in the Northern Bahamas. Once an official announcement is made that the Ministry will close schools located in the Northern Bahamas, please be advised that this announcement also indicates the closure of all Catholic Board of Education schools. As of Monday, 4 September 2017 the Ministry of Education has not announced any school closures.

I ask that you regularly check the CBE website (<http://cboe.cec.edu.bs/>) and listen to the local radio stations as to if and when schools will be closed due to the impending Hurricane Irma.

I would like to urge all of you to take all necessary precautions in preparation for Hurricane Irma. May God bless and keep us all during this hurricane season and always.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "C. A. Rolle".

Claudette A. Rolle

Director of Catholic Education
