

Christ the Lord is risen today. Alleluia!

What a wonderful and glorious season this is! It is a season whereby we can bask in the joy, peace, light and life of the Risen Lord.

We recognize and welcome once again, the Good News of a Saviour who has paved the way for us not just in this, but for eternal life to come.

What wonderful news! That we have a Saviour who loves us beyond measure. This unconditional love compels us to live lives that exemplify love and compassion towards those we encounter daily. Jesus models for us both tough love and love despite difficult circumstances.

And so my friends, hope still abounds, even in the midst of violence and war. Indeed, the Risen Christ still offers to us his gifts of love, forgiveness and the peace that passes all understanding.

We beg of you, not to allow the joys of The Easter Season to be overshadowed or tarnished by the “silly season”. At the end of the day, we are all brothers and sisters in Christ and called to be visible signs of his loving presence here on earth.

It is our humble prayer that you never tire of sharing the story of the resurrected Christ. May His transformative graces serve as a pillar of strength, comfort and peace in the days ahead. And may we be secure in the knowledge that throughout all the changing scenes of life- God is with us every step of the way.

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

St. Paul’s letter to the Philippians urges us today: Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice!

Alleluia! Alleluia! This is the song of an Easter People, says Saint Pope John Paul, II. We are called to be those Easter people. May we then proclaim through our daily lives that Christ is Risen.

A Happy and Blessed Easter to you all!
